Message from the Conference

As we enjoy this glorious Vermont summer, let me share with you a poem written by our own Julie Cadwallader Staub (member of College St. Church in Burlington and of our Conference Board of Directors). It is taken from her book "Wing over Wing", and called, "Paradise of Light". I hope it will encourage you to slow down and take some time to appreciate the beauty of God's creation this summer.

Behind the Green Mountains comes a flush, a command of crimson and rose and apricot
To break open the day

the colors resound
over miles of open sky
to the Adirondacks
where crimson and rose and apricot reply.

And in that long paradise of light
there is no blade of separation fine enough to distinguish the point at which one color ends and the other begins

the same way love loves to change us from what we were into something new

the same way love loves to lead us into colors and cultures and creeds Not our own
the same way love loves to keep creating this long mystery,
still unfolding, still emerging,

still as strong as light.

Peace,
Paul

New News!!!

2021 Clergy Convocation Registration is OPEN!!!

Monday, Oct 4th – Wednesday, Oct 6th
At The Craftsbury Outdoor Center
(note the NEW location)

Theme: “Leaning Into Change When We Don’t Know Where We Might Land”

Just like riding a bike, when the roads ahead of our communities shift, we need to both turn and lean into the turn to keep our balance. In this post-Covid season, we know we need to turn, but knowing how and which way to lean is both essential and hard to imagine when we can’t see the path ahead. This convocation is about learning how to lean into a turn in community, discerning the path together and building the muscles and practices to stay balanced and agile in the face of turns.

You can currently register at Early Bird prices, however these will go up by the end of the summer.

UCC officers: 'Join us in prayer for our time together'

"Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." - Philippians 4:6-7

Each biennium the United Church of Christ gathers as the General Synod to discern the Spirit's calling to the church in this present day. General Synod 33 will begin on July 11, 2021, with opening worship and will continue through July 18, 2021. Although General Synod convenes to conduct the business of the Church, we approach this work in a spirit of worship. In that spirit, beginning June 20 and continuing throughout Synod, we invite the entire church to join us in prayer for our gathered time together.

We Are All Children of God - creating intergenerational church Online, In-Person, and Hybrid

Tuesday, August 17

2:00 - 3:00 PM Eastern

Leader - Rebecca Stevens-Walter

How do we create church (not just worship) where all ages are truly invited? How do we do this online? in person? hybrid? Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me." In this directive, we are called to create church that leaves no one distanced or left out from learning about and experiencing the love of Jesus. This webinar will explore some of the opportunities churches have to engage people of all ages in the life of the community. We'll look at worship models, community standards, and safety measures meant to create space, both online and offline, for congregants to come together and practice faith in the ancient way of intentionally intergenerational community.

The Racial Justice Task Force Needs You!!

"I joined this group because I've come to realize that all the issues of justice are interconnected, in the spirit of Traci Blackmon's keynote on Crossroads. My own passion is the environment, and you can't separate a healthy environment out from racial justice, since unhealthy environments have disproportionate impacts on communities of color, causing immense suffering. In the group, I appreciate the way we've explored many facets of activism around this issue, ranging from self-examination and book study, to political witness, to community collaborations, and as an activist myself, I've gained insight into the ways these different forms of racial justice advocacy all work together." - Fred Taylor

A Call to all Racial Justice and Environmental Justice Advocates:

Action on Line 3 Pipeline in Northern Minnesota

Recently, a group of activists in Minnesota, including both Indigenous and Faith Leaders, have put out a call for people of faith to join in opposing the Line 3 Pipeline that Enbridge Corp. is already in the process of building. This Pipeline is expected to carry tar sands oil across sacred Indigenous lands, as well as numerous bodies of water including the headwaters of the Mississippi. While we celebrate the cancelling of the Keystone XL Pipeline, it's time now to step up to oppose this equally destructive project. Both the Minnesota and National offices of Interfaith Power and Light are very much engaged with this issue, as is our own UCC Environmental Justice Ministries office.

They are eager for our support, so I encourage you to check out the materials with these links, and lift up your voice in faithful witness on behalf of our sacred Earth and our Indigenous brothers and sisters:

COVID 19 FUNERAL ASSISTANCE

As part of the federal funds allocated for COVID relief, there are monies for funeral assistance for the families anyone who dies of COVID. The number of those filing a claim is much less than the number eligible, and because of privacy rules, the state can't just email a list of families. We need help getting word out there to clergy and funeral homes that this assistance is available, (and retroactive). Please share the attached document with anyone that seems appropriate to help raise awareness about this.

Resources for resilience support clergy through COVID-19

It's been almost a year since COVID-19 irrevocably changed United Church of Christ churches.

Members have become ill. Many never recovered. Countless buildings remain closed—some reopening, only to shut down again.

Congregations worship and gather virtually. Clergy have to find ways to cope and carry on. As Americans line up for vaccinations, health experts warn against darker days ahead.

Eleven months of uncertainty. The pandemic is taking an emotional toll on mental health and ministers are not immune.
