Message from the Conference

To the Beloved Community in the Vermont Conference,

There is something exciting happening at the end of the month: the 34th General Synod of the United Church of Christ. This is the event that happens once every other year where the denomination comes together in all its wonderful diversity, in all its passion for justice for all. It is a place and time where we try to show the world we mean what we say, "No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here."

I invite you to take a look at the GS website: generalsynod.org. Here you will find information about important resolutions that will come up for debate and vote, fantastic speakers, including the keynote speaker, Rev. Nadia Bolz-Weber. There are workshops, plenaries, committees, a service project and so much more! This is the meeting where we will elect our next General Minister and President. The search committee is presenting Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson as the candidate for this position.

Here is the list of our Vermont Conference General Synod delegates: Keven Goldenbogen (Charlotte), Andrew Ponder Williams (St J), Eliana Canas (Middlebury), Leigh McCaffrey (Barre), Jane LoBrutto (Dorset), Kim McKerley (Randolph),

Ezra Chapola (Windsor) and Fred Breunig (Guilford). Some portions of General Synod will be live streamed, watch for information at ucc.org. Please join me in praying for our delegates and for all who are attending and providing leadership to make this a success.

Some portions of Synod will be live streamed. Check ucc.org for more information. Please keep our delegates, those attending from all Conferences and those in leadership in your prayers.

This is us.

In peace and hope,
Lynn

Justice Witness Ministries

Your conference has a robust group of social justice-minded folks working together on several issues. Here's an update on our activities:

Justice “Road Show”

We’re putting together a 90-minute workshop to share current activities and brainstorm ideas around racial, reproductive, and environmental justice, global mission, and gun safety. This workshop will involve videos, discussion, and hands-on activities to get folks excited about our UCC witness to justice in the world!

This “Road Show” will be piloted as a Workshop at Annual Meeting (April 28-29) and will be available to be presented at Association Meetings. Please contact Debbie Ingram at debbie@viavt.org if you would like to feature it as the program at your next Association gathering.

Racial Justice

Our VTCUCC Task Force is sponsoring two workshops in which church choirs and community choruses can learn spiritual music by black composers, to honor them and give them the recognition these composers deserve and have been unfairly denied for decades. The southern workshop is in Guilford on April 15 and the northern one is in Mallett’s Bay on May 13. Contact the Conference office for more information.

Also, Vermont Interfaith Action is looking for congregations that would like to help in their towns advance racial justice initiatives around the Declaration of Inclusion, a statement your Selectboard can sign onto to make your town more hospitable and welcoming to all, and a Community Engagement Guide with Local Police, to build a meaningful relationship with your police department around racial equity and true public safety for all. If you would like to know more, please contact Debbie at debbie@viavt.org.

Gun safety

The issue of gun safety is important to the VTCUCC, but we need a point person to help us stay connected with the efforts of other groups. If you would like to be that person, please let us know by contacting Debbie at debbie@viavt.org.

Global mission

Did you know that Rev. Kim McKerley is our Conference’s liaison to the national setting’s Global Mission? She can help your church connect with visiting Mission Co-Workers to speak at an event, or help your church plan a pilgrimage to another country, and so much more! Contact kmbethanyucc@gmail.com to find out more.

Our JWM group meets regularly the first Thursday of every month at 6:30 pm for an hour. If you are interested in joining us, let Debbie know at debbie@viavt.org. As people of faith, let us “do justice” together!

Financial Seminars in West Dover!

If your church is anything like ours, you probably have a good number of folks over 55 which in some circles qualifies them as “seniors”. After hearing some scary stories of friends who experienced a loss of their spouse and had little or no knowledge about their finances, the Loose Knit Group (LKG) of the West Dover Congregational Church came up with an idea to help our members be more prepared for such an event. Thus, Financial Seminars were established. One of our church members was a financial services professional who agreed to help us understand financial planning for the future. He presented his thoughts on how to be “Money Wise”, including budgeting, why to plan financially, the first important steps and how to begin. In addition, he discussed how to protect one’s income, retirement and other topics. Scott then arranged for a local attorney to share his knowledge about wills and trusts. A second session with the attorney is scheduled for March. We hope that this information will prove to be helpful to our members.
