It has certainly been a challenging time for so many of us in the Vermont Conference. The historic rain and floods that we experienced earlier in the month damaged so many of our communities, and left roads and businesses and homes and churches ruined. In last week's Ekit, we shared the stories of pastors Leigh McCaffrey in Barre, Becca Girrell in Morristown, and Peter Plagge in Waterbury. I don't know about you, but I was so moved by each of their stories and the ways that they and their churches have sought to be places of refuge and healing for their communities. I have also been moved by the stories of so many other churches in our Conference sending out work crews to assist both neighboring churches and others during this trying time.

In my own devotional time, I have been reading through Paul's letter to the Galatians. Paul gets quite upset with the Galatian churches for listening to false prophets who tell them that "true" Christians need to be circumcised in addition to having faith in Jesus. Paul reminds them that they are not bound to the law anymore, but they are called to freedom in Christ.

And then he says in vs. 13-14: "For you were called to freedom...so through humble love be servants of one another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one phrase, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'" Over the next several weeks and months, as over the past couple of weeks, there will continue to be some of us who will be overwhelmed by everything that has happened, and in need of spiritual, emotional, and financial support. May all of us seek to freely and humbly love each other as best as we can, through the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit.

Faithfully yours,
Paul

Guilford, VT—An original Guilford Community Church production of drama, music and dance, The Pageant of the Parables, will be performed by local talent on Saturday, August 5 in the Guilford Community Park Pavilion at 7 pm.

A parable is a short and “user friendly” story in which Jesus illustrated simple truths about life. “Ours is a faith that is based on stories,” explained Guilford Community Church pastor, Rev. Elisa Lucozzi. “One of the primary ways Jesus taught about faith and God’s love for us was by using relatable metaphors. The parable of the Good Samaritan and the parable of the Prodigal Son are two of the most well-known examples of the many parables attributed to Jesus,” Lucozzi said.

Can you spare $3 to spare three churches?

There are three churches in the Vermont Conference whose ministry in the community will be disrupted without our help due to losses incurred due to the recent flooding.

Those are three entire faith communities that may be disbanded.

Three church families full of people who have chosen each other may be separated.

Don't let these parishes perish.
Every dollar counts right now.

In the midst of all our focus on flood relief, Springfield had it's First Annual Street Fest on Saturday, July 15th. First Congregational Church of Springfield, UCC had a booth selling strawberry shortcake. It was sunny, no rain with the Black River in the background roiling with the controlled dam release. With children's painted faces, music and food, it was such a positive moment for our Brave Little State. Picture is of our Pastor, Michael Mario and member Pat Townsend.

We also received 216 CWS Emergency Clean Up Buckets on July 20th. We took 100 to Ludlow. We are networking with folks in Londonderry to see if they could use them. We can deliver them to whoever needs them. You can reach out to John Holme at holmelaw@vermontel.net.

Financial Seminars in West Dover!

If your church is anything like ours, you probably have a good number of folks over 55 which in some circles qualifies them as “seniors”. After hearing some scary stories of friends who experienced a loss of their spouse and had little or no knowledge about their finances, the Loose Knit Group (LKG) of the West

Dover Congregational Church came up with an idea to help our members be more prepared for such an event. Thus, Financial Seminars were established. One of our church members was a financial services professional who agreed to help us understand financial planning for the future. He presented his thoughts on how to be “Money Wise”, including budgeting, why to plan financially, the first important steps and how to begin. In addition, he discussed how to protect one’s income, retirement and other topics. Scott then arranged for a local attorney to share his knowledge about wills and trusts. A second session with the attorney is scheduled for March. We hope that this information will prove to be helpful to our members.
