When I was in seminary, I attended a course called “Wonder and Wisdom.” This was a Christian Education class designed to help us explore and ask questions that led to more wonder-filled understanding of God and Christ. No question was off the table, but the questions had to be preceded by ‘wonder statements, such as “I wonder who Jesus loved?” “I wonder who the beloved disciple was?” One day a discussion arose around Jesus and his various relationships with others. And when one person asked the question, “I wonder if Jesus was married?” another person with a more theologically conservative background said firmly and loudly, “NOT MY JESUS!”

Now I have been used to folks quoting scripture (often out of context) and telling me how wrong I am about various topics, but this was the first time I had heard it simply put in words of first person. “Not, MY Jesus.” This gave me the understanding that my classmate was uncomfortable with looking at Jesus and asking questions in any other way than her own understanding that she had been taught. But by referring to “MY Jesus” she was not imposing her view on others. This helped me to talk about my understanding of God and Jesus in a similar way. My God loves everyone! My God created us all. My God loves him, her, them, theirs, and my God wants me to love others as God has loved!

This is one reason I love the Pride Parade that takes place in Burlington each year. It is a wonderful event where many folks gather each year to proclaim with joy and with an outpouring of love that a brighter, more equitable and accepting future is ahead of us! It is quite special to see and participate with so many of our churches sharing and proclaiming that our God loves everyone, that “no matter who you are or where you are in life's journey" you are not only welcome to the table, but you are loved by our God!

In less than ten days the Annual Pride Parade and Festival will take place once again in Burlington on Sunday September 10 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. ending at the waterfront park on the lake. This year will mark 40 years since the original groundbreaking parade organizers first started this trailblazing event back in 1983. Our churches have been marching in this parade together for years. Pride parades take place in other communities around Vermont as well.

Last year we celebrated 50 years of the Open and Affirming Movement in the United Church of Christ. We rejoice that our denomination has helped to lead the way for a more open and inclusive church for all. But there is still much more to do in the way of advocacy, ministry, and witness.

In many parts of this country, it seems that the LGBTQ+ community is under threat. In some cases, those threats come from lawless hooligans who would do harm. In other cases, those threats come from new laws enacted by unfriendly legislatures in less-hospitable states. Now, more than ever, is the time to stand with our LGBTQ+ siblings to show them our support. At the Pride Parade in Burlington on Sunday, September 10, we can not only stand with the LGBTQ+ community, but we can also march with them as well.

Blessings,
Jackie

Registration Now Open For

We are the Body of Christ

Vermont Clergy Convocation 2023

October 2nd- 4th, 2023

Instead of having one main speaker, many of our Vermont Conference clergy will be leading us in various sessions and listening times with the goal of building stronger community among us (and also having fun!).

Please join us!

Dear Friends,

Convocation is coming up soon, and I would be very happy to connect with each of you at the Craftsbury Outdoor Center!

I find, in retirement, that I am more and more appreciative of old friendships, and the opportunity to make new ones. Spending time in community is a great gift.

I'm on the planning committee and we've come up with a wonderful mix of relationship-building activities, spiritual conversations, worship and play, all facilitated by your own dear colleagues. To me, the vibe we are aiming for is "church camp," (hoping that sparks good memories for you!).

There's still time to sign up, and those of us who are not too far away can even sleep in our own beds if we want to.

Hope to see you there,

Martha Peck

Can you spare $3 to spare three churches?

There are three churches in the Vermont Conference whose ministry in the community will be disrupted without our help due to losses incurred due to the recent flooding.

Those are three entire faith communities that may be disbanded.

Three church families full of people who have chosen each other may be separated.

Don't let these parishes perish.
Every dollar counts right now.

The 2023 Pride Vermont Parade is set for Sunday September 10 in Burlington.

What an important time to support Vermont's LGBTQIA+ community. If you are already planning to participate - bravo!

Interested in participating?

- This is the 40th anniversary of the Pride Vermont Parade - this important solidarity event has grown from involving 350 participants in 1983 to more than 5,000 last year! This year's Pride Parade will feature a new route with the majority of the parade taking place on Main Street in Burlington. Vermont's Pride Center leaders write: "After the parade, all are invited at Waterfront Park for the Pride Vermont Festival! Let's come together as a community to celebrate our accomplishments and advocate for the rights of everyone in the LGBTQIA+ community of Vermont."
- Learn more about the Pride Center here - <https://www.pridecentervt.org/>

Many UCC congregations in the Champlain Association will be taking part again this year - we hope that the UCC will have a statewide presence at Pride!

As we have for the last several years - First Congregational Church UCC of Burlington (38 S. Winooski Avenue) - is once again inviting VTCUCC congregations to gather for the Pride Parade at First Church so that our congregations can walk together.

- Between 11:30 and 11:45am all participating in the Pride Parade - are invited to meet on the front porch at First Church - our restrooms will be open - there will be some open parking - street and parking garage parking are also available.

- Register your congregation for Pride (link below) and carry a banner in the Parade - or join our walkers.
- Coming to Burlington from a distance? If a delegation from your congregation wants to take part in Pride - and you are at some distance from Burlington - why not spend the day in the city? Join us for worship at 10am - followed by our annual - open to all - "Homecoming Sunday" picnic at 11:00. We'll head to the parade staging area just before 11:45.

Information about Pride Vermont Parade 2023 & Registration Fees:

- <https://www.pridecentervt.org/pride/>
- <https://www.pridecentervt.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/06/2023-Pride-Vermont-Parade-Registration-Fees.pdf>
- The Pride Parade staging areas open at noon on September 10.

We recommend that each church pay the parade fee separately - we are asking that the United Church of Christ congregations are once again grouped near each other. If you register on or before August 31 - the fee is $33 for a "solidarity Group" walking in the parade - a little more if you want to decorate a vehicle ($43) - or enter a full float ($53)!

Questions? Want to let us know that you will be worshipping at FirstChurchUCC/BTV in the morning - or gathering with us to walk to the parade staging area a little after 11:30? Please be in touch by email - or text or call me - 802 598 0746.

Around the Office

Laura Nassau and Rameen Zahed ( Vermont Conference Treasurers) graced the office on Wednesday!

Laura came bearing gifts! The sign she is holding is from a bus trip Rev. John Nutting organized to travel to Washington D.C. in August of 1983 (for those keeping track- the sign is 40 years old) to commemorate Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s historic march on Washington.

PATHWAYS
THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

We celebrate having had the opportunity to meet a number of our UCC conference ministers, staff, delegates, COM members and clergy while we were at the recent General Synod meeting. If we didn't get to see you personally, we hope we have an opportunity to do so in the future.

It's time for us to alert you to PATHWAYS' Fall Schedule of Courses, especially the Fall II courses that begin in October. Fall I begins in mid-to-late August and people can still sign up any time during the first week of class. Fall II courses will begin in October. Now is the time to try one of our courses and to invite friends and colleagues to sign up for the Fall courses.

Cost Effective Apply online at PATHWAYStheological.org

PATHWAYS Theological Education, Inc. is a 501c3 program that grew from a program of the Southeast Conference UCC. It remains affiliated with the Southeast Conference. The program offers a full menu of courses for those seeking authorized ministry, for those wanting continuing education, and for those looking for progressive theology courses in theology, ethics, praxis and more. The courses are asynchronous, geographically unbound, affordable, and aligned with the UCC Marks of Faithful and Effective Authorized Ministers. The learners cannot hide in these online classes! The course requires people to answer the weekly questions as a blog post to which the other learners respond. This asynchronous approach builds community among the learners and with the facilitator. Please be in touch with any questions. Individuals may apply online at pathwaystheological.org.

Have you done your boundary training?
