Dear Friends,

Those of you who know me know that I am a devotee of public radio. Working in my kitchen or driving around the NEK, I am listening to the radio. Like many of you, I am heartbroken by the increasingly desperate reports coming from Gaza and, in these past few days, the increasingly desperate reports from Haiti. One of the things these two places have in common right now, besides horrific violence, is the risk of life-threatening famine.

The Integrated Food Security Phase Classification (IPC) is an innovative multi-partner initiative and is recognized for its nonpartisan research and recommendations worldwide. According to IPC, 1.1 million people in Gaza – fully half of the population – are experiencing catastrophic food insecurity and famine is imminent. In Haiti, UNICEF estimates that more than 1.1 million women and children are in need of nutritional assistance, a need which could quickly escalate to famine. As the parent of a teenager who eats 6 times a day, I cannot imagine the pain of watching your child suffer, and potentially die, because there is nothing to feed them.

During this Holy Week, I am planning to fast during daylight hours on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Quite frankly, I am planning this fast because I don't know what else I can concretely do. Our church and our family are offering prayers and donations already. I would welcome your company in this endeavor, whether you plan to fast for several days or for one meal or are not able to fast at all. Join me please in prayer that we can end the absolutely solvable problem of hunger – here at home and in all the other places where children are hungry.

We began this Lent with these words from Isaiah:

58:6 Is not this the fast that I choose: to lose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke?

58:7 Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin?

58:8 Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

Join me next week in fasting from indifference and hopelessness and in prayer for the inbreaking of the Light.

In faith,

Alyssa May

Meal sites feel pressure as need from hungry Vermonters doubles

At Loaves & Fishes, volunteers scramble to keep donations of dollars and ingredients on track for more hot meals
By Annie Landenberger

"At Loaves & Fishes, one of the region's enduring meal services for those in need, volunteer cook David Treadwell says that "the demand has doubled."

The number of meals prepared and distributed every Tuesday and Friday out of the vast kitchen, prep, serving area in the basement of Centre Congregational Church (CCC) has gone from 100 per day a year ago to 250 every Tuesday and 200 on Fridays, says Loaves & Fishes facilitator and volunteer coordinator Ruth Tilghman of St. Michael's Episcopal Church (SME)."

Brattleboro church becomes interfaith center
By Chris Mays, Brattleboro Reformer
Feb 21, 2024

BRATTLEBORO — Centre Congregational Church is sharing its space with Muslims, Buddhists, Jews, 12-step program members and chanting practitioners.

An asset mapping event at the church in July involved brainstorming with the community about how to utilize the large Main Street fixture and how the church could best facilitate such uses, the Rev. Scott Couper of Centre Congregational Church said. From there, efforts were made to create an interfaith center in which the Christian church would coexist with many different faith traditions.

Ministry21: Equipping 21st Century Leaders for Ministry in a Changing World
A partnership of the Vermont and New Hampshire Conferences of the United Church of Christ

If you've attended Conference events lately, you'll have noticed that many of our churches are lively and joyful regardless of the size of the congregation. We have so much spirit, joy, and courage to offer the communities in which we serve! We are actively engaged in the ministry Jesus did, feeding bodies and souls, working for justice and safety for marginalized peoples, resisting the powers of war and divisive hatreds, and worshipping faithfully.

To support the needs of these amazing churches for skilled leadership, our Conference is joining with our UCC neighbors in New Hampshire to develop Ministry21 — a partnership designed to help equip lay leaders for service in the Church through a three-year program of courses. Ministry21 will launch in September of 2024, bringing students together one Saturday per month to develop their skills and knowledge in preaching and worship leadership, the practical aspects of leading congregations, and pastoral tasks of caring for parishioners and engaging in ministries in the community. This program is particularly designed for licensed clergy and those potentially seeking licensure, as well as lay leaders who wish go deeper in their support of their local congregation.

One of the very life-giving opportunities for the local church is to take note of the gifts that are evident within the church family and encourage their development. If you are clergy or a lay-leader who has noticed the gifts of someone in your worshiping community, and you suspect they are being called to deeper learning and service within the church, please encourage them to contact Rev. Susie Webster-Toleno, the Vermont Conference Dean of Ministry21. Susie can be reached by text or phone at 802-579-8356, or via email: Ministry21.vtconferenceucc@gmail.com

NEAUCE Conference

Keynote
Rev. Matt Carriker

Guest Speaker
Debbie Gline Allen

Greetings NEAUCE Community,
We want YOU To Find Rest For Your Soul!

Join us in “Keeping Sabbath Sacred” this May at NEAUCE 2024 on the beautiful Pilgrim Pines Campus in Swanzey NH.

Registration is open for the 53rd Annual NEAUCE Conference. Gather with your colleagues for amazing worship, a variety of specialty workshops, networking, rich discussions, creative play, and relaxing opportunities.

Our Keynote, Rev. Matt Carriker will focus on Sabbath Practices that will guide us into long-term rhythms of rest amidst the busy, demanding schedules of our lives and ministries. In "Sabbath: Finding Rest, Renewal, and Delight in our Busy Lives," Wayne Muller says, "Without rest, we respond from a survival mode, where everything we meet assumes a terrifying prominence... a period of rest is not simply a human psychological convenience; it is a spiritual and biological necessity."

We have largely forgotten the Sabbath as a church. Jesus models a way of Sabbath as a refuge- setting aside a sanctuary in time to "disconnect from the frenzy of consumption and accomplishment and consecrate our day as an offering for healing all beings... the world aches for the generosity of a well-rested people." (Muller) Moving away from the legalistic, dreary Sabbath, Jesus invites us to reclaim the Sabbath not simply for self-care, but for the good of the church and the world. Come, explore together how this practice can offer nourishment, delight, savoring, and blessing.

Also joining us is Guest Speaker Debbie Gline Allen, SNEUCC Minister of Faith Formation. She will invite us all to explore the implications and implementations for Christian practices of hospitality that can lead to transformational congregational ministry fully grounded in a culture of welcome and acceptance. As faith formation leaders accommodate post-pandemic shifts and changes, this intentional perspective may be just what your church needs to enliven an intergenerational focus.

We are so excited to gather in person once again and meet new faces or reconnect with beloved colleagues from years in this ministry. Being a part of this three-day retreat is always magical, memorable, and transforming in so many ways.

Come, Rest, and Reclaim Sabbath in ways that are just right for you!

Greetings from Horton Center!

My name is Tivvi Pare and I am the Executive Director of Horton Center, the Outdoor Ministries site of the UCC in New Hampshire. Horton Center is an incredibly beautiful place where people of all ages come to rest, rejuvenate, reflect and relax! We have seven weeks of summer camping starting in late June and running through early

August. Campers entering 3rd grade through 2024 high school graduates come for a week at a time to explore their faith, be part of an inclusive

Christian community, try new things (rock climbing, archery, hiking, etc!), and make new friends. There are also opportunities for adults, families, and entire churches to come up to our mountaintop "thin" place!

I'd love the chance to connect with you and share more about the opportunities Horton Center holds for you, your youth, your churches and more!

Please complete this form and plan to attend an informational Zoom meeting so that I can meet you and provide more information about camp.

All are welcome at Horton Center!
